

U.S. Not Very Hopeful About Nuclear Talks

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. officials have very little hope at the moment that the Moscow nuclear test ban talks next month will lead to a breakthrough in the long East-West deadlock.

Their primary reason is that Soviet Premier Khrushchev is reported to be holding rigidly to his position that a test ban treaty can be adequately enforced without any kind of international inspection inside the Soviet Union.

Another reason for lack of optimism regarding the U.S.-British-Russian negotiations in mid-July is that officials believe Khrushchev is under heavy pressure from his military advisors to hold another series of nuclear weapons tests later this year.

The Soviet Union, after a three-year moratorium, resumed testing in 1961 and followed up with a second round of tests in 1962. After the Soviets scuttled the moratorium the United States also tested, and some of the best-informed authorities here now believe that the arms race probably will go on in this pattern with new weapons experiments in the fall.

If this is the outlook, Washington authorities are puzzled about the reasons why Khrushchev has chosen during the past week to respond as he has to Western initiatives related to the test ban issue.

The first of these moves came a week ago when he accepted a proposal by Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to hold high level discussions in an effort to re-examine the inspection and detection problem and see whether the deadlock might be broken.

The speculation most generally favored by U.S. officials is that the display of Soviet friendliness may be a maneuver dictated by Khrushchev's strategy in an effort to gain a better position in the coming year.

Arkansans Lose in Southwest Open

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Top-seeded Don Kierbow of Corpus Christi, Tex., won two matches in the Southwest Open tennis tournament Thursday.

Kierbow subdued Alex Wellford of Memphis 6-4, 6-4 in a tight first round match, then breezed past Joe Adams of England 6-1, 6-2.

Kierbow's third round opponent today was George Dunklin of Pine Bluff, a former Arkansas state champion. Dunklin defeated Billy Campbell of Little Rock 6-0 and John Hunter of Pan-American College 1-6, 9-7, 6-2. Hunter was one of the tournament favorites.

Play was to start today in men's doubles. Two rounds were scheduled.

Guards Back on Jobs at Alabama

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Thousands of Alabama National Guardsmen return to their civilian jobs today after a third Negro entered the University of Alabama system quietly and without incident.

Dave M. McGlathery, a 27-year-old mathematician at the Marshall Space Flight Center, registered at the Alabama Extension Center Thursday.

Later, he took his seat for his first class in "series and special functions," an advanced mathematics course for graduate students.

McGlathery said the course would be difficult, but "I'll stay with it." He said he noticed no reaction from his fellow students. With the three Negroes now enrolled—McGlathery at Huntsville and two others at the main campus in Tuscaloosa—the Army authorized possibly 13,000 federalized National Guardsmen to return to their regular occupations. Units released from standby duty were those not involved in guard duty at Tuscaloosa or those engaged in summer training.

Approximately 17,000 Alabama guardsmen were called into federal service Tuesday after Gov. George C. Wallace attempted to prevent the enrollment of two Negroes at the main university campus.

About 2,000 guardsmen are deployed at Tuscaloosa. An additional 2,000 are on two weeks of active duty training at Ft. McClellan, Ala., Ft. Gordon, Ga., and Camp Shelby, Miss.

As McGlathery was registering at Huntsville, campus life was beginning to return to normal at the university in Tuscaloosa, 160 miles to the southwest.

Barriades were removed from most of the campus and automobiles were permitted on the university grounds for the first time since Saturday.

Prattville Does It Businesslike

PRATTSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—When Prattville decided it needed more population, the community of 400 tackled the problem in a businesslike manner.

The city government launched a housebuilding project to make room for newcomers.

The first of 10 planned dwelling units—a three bedroom, brick veneer home—has been completed. Mayor Joe Sweat said other houses would be started as soon as the city can afford them.

The completed house will sell, Sweat said, for $11,500, "several hundred dollars less than a similar house would cost in Little Rock or Pine Bluff."

Sweat said a wealthy benefactor, who asked to remain anonymous, put up the money for the first house. The project was launched by the Inter-Community Development Council, similar to an industrial development group.

One factor that made such a project necessary, Sweat said, is Prattville's effort to get a city water system. It needs 125 customers to get a monthly rate of $4 a home and at least count it has 104 potential users.

Sweat said Prattville offers potential residents "an ideal little community for anyone who enjoys country living. It's a good Baptist community with lots of friendly people."

Prattville is nine miles west of Sheridan on Highway 270.

Post Commander

FT. CHAFFEE, Ark. (AP)—Maj. William A. Crim Jr. will succeed Lt. Col. Andrew J. Gula as adjutant general at Ft. Chaffee, Maj. Gen. A. J. Adams, post commander, announced Thursday. Gula retired.

Sky Diving Club Contest Here

This shows a couple of Sky Divers, jumping arm-in-arm, and this is just a part of the show that will be put on Saturday and Sunday at Municipal Airport when the Arkansas Parachute Club hosts a two-day contest. There will be competition in various events. Jumping starts at 8 a.m. Saturday and more than likely parachutists from 10 states will take part.

Berry Takes Credit for Rainfall

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Horner Berry, the retired Air Force officer who took credit for a rain that growers said saved the state's peach crop, turned his attention to troubles of cotton farmers Thursday and declined to leave the state to water down a golf course.

Berry, who claims he brings rain by seeding clouds with silver iodide sent up from a brick lined barrel on the back of a pickup truck, undertook this week to provide southwest Arkansas peach growers with two inches of rain by midnight Saturday.

He seeded clouds over the area and by Wednesday, .75 to 1.50 inches of rain had been reported. Berry said at his home in North Little Rock Thursday the remainder of the guaranteed rain would fall by the deadline.

The southwest Arkansas precipitation brought him a series of offers from other sections of the state, which are suffering from drought.

Berry said Thursday he had job offers from Pine Bluff, Portland, Ashley County and Augusta.

He had his rainmaking machine set up at his home Thursday afternoon, seeding clouds headed to Augusta, where he said he was offered $1,000 to produce a rain of more than one inch by Saturday night.

Berry was paid $500 for expenses and will be paid another $500 if enough rain falls, cotton farmer Dick Conner said at Augusta. Conner said he and 20 of his friends had raised the money.

The Southmoor Golf and Country Club at suburban Whitehaven in Memphis revealed Thursday it had put out feelers to get Berry to bring rain to the club's recently seeded course.

James Little, a spokesman for the club, said there was no commitment, but if Berry could produce enough rain, "It would be worth his $2,000 fee."

Berry said Thursday night, "Of course, I couldn't get to work on a golf course in another state while a lot of cotton and bean people need me here."

Day Dreaming Is Called Sleep

TORONTO (AP)—A Toronto psychiatrist says the person who claims to get along on only a few hours sleep nightly is fooling himself. He gets his sleep during his apparently waking hours.

Prof. John W. Lovett-Doust explained Thursday at the annual meeting of the Canadian Psychiatric Association that the person who spends a relatively short time in bed at night picks up the missing sleep during the day every time his mind wanders.

"Day-dreaming is sleep," he said.

Sells Police Bike by Mistake

GRIMSTAD, Norway (AP)—A policeman sold the police patrol bicycle by mistake for $3.50 at a lost property auction.

The bicycle had been equipped recently with a new $5 light.

The police asked the buyer to reconsider, but he refused. He said he would lend the bicycle to the police so they could keep order in the town until they bought a new bicycle.

The new bicycle cost $60.

Policy Is Reward to Prisoner

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The chairman of the state Pardon and Paroles Board said Thursday that prison policy of letting convicts work away from the prison without pay is considered a reward for the prisoner.

Loid Sadler of Morrilton, the chairman, said, "They don't get paid, but somebody passes the hat and gives them something. And the men get out for a few days."

Only long-term convicts without families are assigned away from the prison, Sadler said, adding, "I don't know if it's right or wrong, but it's been done for so many years that everybody takes it for granted."

The practice was revealed Thursday in an attorney general's opinion regarding a convict that escaped while on his way back to the prison from a week's work in a deer camp in Perry County.

Prison officials asked the attorney general whether the man should be prosecuted for escape in Pulaski County, where he escaped, or in Lincoln County, where the prison is located. The ruling was for prosecution in Pulaski County.

J. B. Samuels of Spring Hill Dies Thursday

J. B. Samuels, aged 72, a resident of Spring Hill, died Thursday in a Texarkana hospital. He had lived in the area nearly three years.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Stella Samuels, two sons, Eddie L. Samuels of Dallas and Joe Samuels Jr. of Blue Ridge Summit, Calif., a daughter, Mrs. Juanita Haynes of Dallas; a sister, Mrs. Richard Steinberg of Dallas.

Services will be held at 1 p. m. Saturday at Oakcrest Funeral Chapel by the Rev. A. J. Conrad. Burial will be in Memory Gardens.

Survivors also include four stepdaughters, Carol Ann Otigo of Palmos; Marilyn Joyce Gilstrap of Dallas; Mary Ellen Glover of Dallas and Mae Shaffer of Hope.

Echo II Shown in Demonstration

LAKEHURST, N.J. (AP)—A prototype of the Echo II communications Satellite—an inflated balloon 135 feet in diameter—was demonstrated Thursday by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

NASA is conducting two to three weeks of tests on this balloon before launching the Echo II later this year from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

Forboding Air Hangs Over Jackson, Miss.

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—An air of forboding hung over this city today as Negro leaders signalled for a "March, March, March" strategy and prepared a dramatic funeral for a slain civil rights leader.

Police and FBI agents pursued clues into several states in their hunt for the sniper who ambushed Medgar Evers, a field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, early Wednesday.

Evidence found near the scene of the murder had been rushed to the FBI laboratories in Washington, but so far there was no solution of the crime.

The evidence included one fingerprint found on a rifle evidently used to kill Evers as he prepared to enter his home.

Civil rights leaders from many states are expected to attend the funeral of Evers at the Negro Masonic Temple Saturday. It was announced that Evers, a veteran of World War II, would be buried in Arlington National Cemetery some time next week.

Negro leaders rallied their followers to press forward with their street marches in protest against racial barriers. Such demonstrations led Thursday to 90 arrests, and some club-swinging by police.

A white professor who joined in the demonstrations got a hero's reception when he appeared in a bloodied shirt Thursday night at a rally of hymn-singing, cheering Negroes at the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church on Blair Street.

Prof. John Salter, 29, who hails from Flagstaff, Ariz., had a bandage on his head where a police club struck, and his blood-stained blue sweatshirt was torn down the middle.

He said he had just been released in $200 bond on charges of disturbing the peace and resisting arrest.

Salter, a square-jawed man with burning blue eyes, teaches sociology at Tougaloo Southern Christian College near here, a school attended mostly by Negroes.

The body of Evers lay for the time in a Negro funeral parlor where the slain man's widow almost collapsed when she came to view it in its state-gray casket.

Falling across the coffin, she kissed the dead man's face, whispered in his ear, ran her fingers through his hair.

Negro leaders made no progress when they met Thursday with Mayor Allen Thompson in another effort to lower race barriers.

He told them that Negro policemen and school crossing guards will be appointed as previously promised; but he reiterated his stand against a prime Negro demand, appointment of a biracial study committee to study such things as Negro job opportunities and desegregation of eating places and schools.

"I know how such committees operate and I know they don't work," the mayor said.

The Negro leaders' version of the conference was given later at the NAACP rally in the church, where some 500 people linked hands and swayed as they sang and cheered in the steaming heat.

By The Star Staff

Post Commander Dean E. Murphy has called a special meeting of the American Legion for 7:30 p. m., June 18 at the courtroom in Hempstead Courthouse.

Purpose of the meeting is to elect new Post officers and to name delegates to the Department Convention at El Dorado on July 19-21. . . . and to consider acquiring property for a Legion Hut. . . . this year's delegates to Boy's State will be present and tell of their experiences, according to Post Adjutant Talbot Field Jr.

Mrs. Crit Stuart Jr., Mrs. Homer Jones and Mrs. Carter Russell, all of Hope, along with Mrs. Roe Sanders of Nashville, all finalists in the annual Southwest Arkansas Poultry Festival Chicken Cooking Queen contest, are in Little Rock Friday and Saturday for the state competition.

According to U.S. Savings Bonds report for April sales in Hempstead totaled $2,755, making the year $44,768 which is 19.2 per cent of the quota of $232,000. . . . Howard County sales were $11,267, bring the year to $40,899.

Dairy Day in Hope yesterday was quite successful and Miss Denise Lauterback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lauterback won the title of Junior Dairy Princess and the right to enter state competition. . . . various contests were held during the day. . . . in one small boy drank 11 glasses of milk. . . . it was all you could drink for a real milk and in guessing the retail of milk products in Hempstead for year, Walter Vorhagen hit it right on the nose, $1,240,000.

Benson Invited

NASHVILLE, Ark. (AP)—President Kennedy has invited Rev. W. M. Benson, a Negro of Nashville, Ark. to take part in a civil rights meeting June 17 at the White House. Benson, pastor of the Free Christian Zion Church of Christ at Nashville since 1929, said the meeting would be composed of religious leaders who will discuss certain aspects of the nation's civil rights program.

State Poultry Festival Starts

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Poultry Festival got underway today, with events leading up to selection Saturday night of a 1963 Arkansas Poultry Princess.

The winner of the state contest will compete in the Miss Universe contest at Miami Beach next month.

On tap today were meetings of the Arkansas Egg Council, Turkey Federation, Poultry Improvement Association and Poultry Processors Association.

Finals of the statewide Arkansas Chicken Cookin' Contest will be held from 8 to 11 a.m. Saturday.

The festival will be climaxed at 6 p.m. Saturday with the $50-a-plate coronation banquet, featuring the poultry princess contest and presentation of awards to winners of the cooking contest and to Arkansas' outstanding poultrymen.

Twenty girls, chosen at regional events, will compete for the poultry princess title.

Asks Unions to End Bias in Hiring

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has asked labor union officials to join the federal government in a massive attack on job discrimination.

And he got a long-distance pledge from AFL-CIO President George Meany that the unions will support him.

The President made his appeal Thursday as he conferred at length with more than 280 union representatives at the White House.

After the session, one labor leader said Kennedy made five major requests of the AFL-CIO for what he termed "this summer of determined effort."

The points were listed this way: 1. The President asked the AFL-CIO to set up a top-level committee to work with the administration in a concerted drive on job discrimination.

2. Kennedy asked for all-out support from the trade union movement for his legislative package of social and economic measures.

3. He urged an all-out campaign to build up voter registrations, particularly among minority groups.

4. He called on international unions to put more Negroes in position of responsibility. Kennedy was quoted as saying: "As I look around this room, there are too many white faces, both down there and up here."

5. He proposed that the unions take the initiative in forming biracial councils across the nation.

Protest Is Planned in Washington

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Negroes march, sing and pray today in a big protest demonstration that's expected to be the largest in the capital's history.

A leader of the "March for Freedom Now"—in which organizers expect at least 2,000 to take part—said it would be orderly and nonviolent.

Acting Police Chief Howard V. Covell said "We anticipate no trouble." Nevertheless he ordered day-shift police to stay on duty after the 4 p.m. change of shifts, so police strength would be at its peak.

The leaflets carried demands addressed to "Mr. President," including "Don't play politics with human rights," and "No federal funds for apartheid states"—a reference to the segregation policy of the South African government.

The Justice Department was made the final stop of the marchers, the leaflets indicated, because of what the leaflets called "blatant job discrimination" against Negroes in the department headed by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, President Kennedy's brother.

Patrolman Joseph Saridis, with Kain, started to put the pair in a radio patrol car.

With that, Pruitt shouted to the crowd, "Are you going to let them get away with this?"

As the patrolmen tried to push the two men into the car, rocks and bottles were thrown. There were no injuries.

Pruitt and Allen were charged with disorderly conduct and felonious assault.

Espionage Hint Has Macmillan in Trouble

By ANTHONY WHITE

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan clung desperately to his post today despite continuing threats of rebellion among his Conservative supporters in Parliament.

Macmillan rode out one more day of crisis Thursday with his cabinet outwardly intact. But his hold on the party, scarred and shaken by the Profumo scandal, seemed to be weakening steadily.

From Selwyn Lloyd, former chancellor of the exchequer who Macmillan fired 11 months ago, came what looked like a new and dangerous challenge to the prime minister's leadership.

"The country is asking for courageous and confident leadership not based on expediency, but based on obedience to high moral standards and irreproachable behavior in high office," Lloyd told a Conservative banquet.

Members of the Labor and Liberal parties kept up a chorus of demands for Macmillan's resignation.

The cabinet still stood by Macmillan. But there was no assurance the solid front would be maintained. Health Minister Enoch Powell continued to be mentioned as potential leader of a revolt. Education Minister Sir Edward Boyle was another reported wavering.

It was notable that Powell took no measures to deny the persistent reports that he was contemplating quitting. His resignation could be the first rock of a landslide that would force Macmillan to give way to another Conservative leader.

Macmillan's toughest test comes on Monday, when he faces House of Commons debate on the issues raised by former War Minister John Profumo's clandestine affair with party girl Christine Keller.

Profumo, 46, resigned last week after confessing he had lied to Parliament to keep his 1961 liaison with Miss Keeler secret. She had

Editor of the Star: "This is in reference to the proposed city-wide improvement district now facing the property owners in our city. This is the first time in my entire life that I have written a word on an issue to the public. I am moved to do this only because of the gravity of the situation."

"The proponents of the issue have three or four points to argue. First one is 'bad streets' with which I will agree. We do need street improvement and I am not against programs, but this program should be made through sound economics, thrift and honest administrative application of our present available income and not by reckless planning and overspending. Thereby a tax on our burdened taxpayers."

"Their second point is, that we must grab at our last chance at a government grant to be furnished by the U. S. government. With this I do not agree. It is not a grant, you and each of you know this is again tax money and must be paid back by us and our posterity."

"Their third point is, 'it will make your property worth more money.' This is debatable, especially from the point of taxation. We all know that a Cadillac is worth more than a Ford, but everybody can't afford a Cadillac, and I think we have reached the point that we can't afford any more taxes."

"I am in the real estate business and have knowledge of things pertaining to the sale and value of property. When you have a prospect now, among the first questions he asks is about taxes, then special taxes. I have had many of them to say, 'taxes and rising star missionary baptist church' 700 Oak Street special taxes are the reason I sold out where I previously lived."

"Taxation is considered in all loan applications, VA, FHA and conventional loans. The higher your taxation the less chance you have for an approval of a loan, since all loans are based on the ability of the borrowers to pay."

"The fourth and final, it attracts tourists. To this I agree. But let's take first things first. Do you think a tourist riding around good streets would feel so good if he knew he was in a city that still had outdoor toilets? Yes, outdoor toilets. Many of you reading this don't know we still have them, but we do. Yes, we have a good sized section lying between the MOP railroad and north Hazel St. that still have open toilets. The planners of this project are well aware of this condition."

"Now we have already two improvement districts in our city lying and being situated, on the East and Southwest side known as a 'sewerage district.' None the less binding, however, on the property therein, since the holders of these bonds has at first lien or mortgage on the property covered by the district."

"I asked one of the officials and planners of this city paying district what they intended to do with the part that was already in an improvement district. His answer, 'Slap another right on top of it.'"

"Now, of course, this is double taxation on the people who live in these improvement districts. But it raises a grave question in my mind as to the validity of the second mortgage which will be offered the buyers in this proving project. And also, are the people living in the already bonded districts willing to sign a petition giving away a second mortgage on their property? You better stop and figure this one before you sign it."

"I understand that the proponents of this paving project are telling the people that these 20 year bonds will be paid off in 13 years, that each 50 feet of each type of paving and curb and gutter will cost such and such amounts. Let me say here and now, I don't think they are saying this to mislead us. They just haven't told us all of it."

"Now the 13 year bond payoff is based on no delinquencies during the entire 13 years. Now really, do you think this possible? No, based on past experience this is not even probable."

"I will here tell you that I am deeply involved in one of the mentioned improvement districts I mentioned above. The bonds are 20 year issue. The district is about six years old and we are approximately one and a half years behind. Remember this district is incorporated in the proposed paving district and at this rate when will we pay it out? You tell me."

"Now as to the amount they say it will cost us. Again, I'm not saying they set this figure up to mislead us. But I am saying it is tentative and only a preliminary figure. The final figure will be handed us by the assessors who are not yet appointed and who will not be appointed until the district is formed and all administrative costs, fees, commissions, etc., have been added. Then the assessor will assess our property accordingly."

"Now I understand that each property owner within the city limits will have a right to sign this petition or refuse to sign it whether any part of the paving abuts or adjoins his property and he can't be assessed any part of

Radio Station's Sale Affirmed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sale of radio station KXLR of North Little Rock to Mrs. Bernice L. Lynch and her son, F. F. Lynch, of Oklahoma City for $147,504 was approved Wednesday by the Federal Communications Commission.

Mrs. Lynch acquired 72 per cent of the stock and her son 28 per cent.

The two operate radio stations KBYE at Oklahoma City and KFBI at Wichita, Kan.

The station was sold by Devane Clarke, Charles R. Rutherford, James K. Dodson and Leonard E. Hoffman Jr., all of Dallas, Tex., the FCC said.

The commission also granted Adrian L. White of Peabotons authority to operate a new standard daytime radio station on the frequency of 1350 kilocycles, with 250 watt power.

the payments.

"I don't think he should have to pay, yet I don't think he should be allowed to sign and say whether you and I pay or not. I'm sure this is not fair play, and anything that isn't fair play may not be legal. The legal part will be looked into later, be assured of that."

"Now I must tell you of a conversation I had with another proponent of this project. I told him I saw no way out for me if this deal is successful and the tax goes on except to raise my rents. 'He immediately spoke up and said, 'that's the thing to do,' and I said, 'and pass it on the people least able to pay it.' His solution to my problem reminded me of the TV commercial we see, 'The Thing to Do,' just that simple."

I urge each and all of the property owners of the City of Hope not to sign a petition born of reckless spending and planning."

Yours truly,
Frank J. Hill

Church Group Asked to Explain Ruling

MEMPHIS (AP) — The Presbytery of Central Mississippi has been asked to re-examine its refusal to approve former Wynne, Ark. pastor Mac Hart for a Meridian, Miss., post and admission to the Presbytery. A special judicial commission recommended re-examination of the minister Wednesday. No action was taken immediately on the recommendation. The first examination of Hart came in January 1962, when the Meridian Church stated its intention to call the minister, then pastor of the Wynne Presbyterian Church. The Mississippi Presbytery gave no reason for its refusal to approve Hart.

Performance champ...

When Plymouth, Chevrolet and Ford met in a ten-event performance showdown at Riverside, California, it was to establish which one of these three cars did the best job with the motor running. As the results indicate, Plymouth pretty much had its own way—winning every acceleration test, the handling test, both passing-safety tests and the gas economy test.

HER MOTHER NEVER GREW UP

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My mother is the problem child of the family. Dad and all of us spend our lives negotiating to keep peace when she's around. It's embittered him to the point where he almost left her twice this past winter. She's 64 and he 72.

I live 250 miles away and am busy with a large family so can't do much to help mainly because my first obligation is to my own husband and children. Mama refuses to go out and has practically no friends. Her days are spent complaining and suspecting others of the worst.

Can you, out of your experience with people of all kinds, suggest a solution to this dreadful situation? I wish she could find happiness with our children—the way Dad does. Through loving kindness he makes them as he taught and is a perfect grandfather.

His affection for them is a shot in the arm to my husband and me. We all look forward to his visits but Mama is the fly in our ointment. We wish it were possible for him to come without her but he's afraid to leave her alone.

We suspect she likes drink over much. Maybe it would be better if he did walk out. They've never been separated that I can remember though each has often threatened to leave.

Sometime ago I sent for your leaflet, "Are You Sensitive?" and after making a copy for myself, sent it on to Mama. She said it was very good. Truthfully, it hit the nail on the head. I've shed many a tear over the whole sorry situation but how can you help a person who won't make a move to better herself? —Despairing Daughter

Dear Despairing: This "sickness" of your mother's, for it is a sickness, should be tackled

Convict Worked at a Deer Camp

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Negro convict from Cummins Prison Farm worked as a "cook" in a deer camp in Perry County last winter, an attorney general's opinion revealed today.

The opinion went to Maj. Alan R. Templeton of the prison staff who said the prisoner "left the bus" on the way back to the farm and asked whether he should be prosecuted for escape in Pulaski County, where the escape took place, or in Lincoln County, where the farm is located.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Jack Lessenberry said the proper place for prosecution was in the county where the escape occurred.

Templeton did not say in his request for an opinion how it developed that a convict was used as a deer camp cook or for whom he worked.

Sees Increase in State Revenues

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Budget Director Julian Hogan envisioned Monday a high of $118 million in state general revenues for the 12-month fiscal year, ending June 30.

He said the state is collecting more tax money at a faster rate and revised the $115 million prediction he made late last year.

He said income tax revenues are about $2 million above the previously predicted amounts, hence the revision.

sooner about Profumo, the girl and the Russian, and in continuing to believe Profumo's denials of guilt over a period of months.

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan called in his top security aides today after a lawyer told him party girl Christine Keeler claimed a Soviet naval attaché tried to use her to wangle nuclear secrets from former War Minister John Profumo. Miss Keeler's new law firm, W. F. Lyons & Co., said on her behalf that she never had been asked by the Soviet naval attaché, Capt. Eugene Ivanov, to get military information out of Profumo while he and the Russian were sharing her affections.

But a short time earlier, Miss Keeler's former legal adviser, Michael H. B. Eddowes, charged that Ivanov had asked her to wheedle from Profumo the date of delivery of nuclear warheads to West Germany.

He released the text of the letter to the press today.

When told that Miss Keeler, through another firm of lawyers, denied she had told anyone such thing, Eddowes declined to comment.

Taking official notice for the first time of the involvement of Ivanov in the scandal which could topple Macmillan's Conservative government, Soviet Ambassador Alexander Soldatov said: "He had nothing to do with the whole affair. It is a case of 'much ado about nothing.'"

The report to Macmillan by Eddowes blew security aspects of the scandal back into the headlines.

Eddowes delivered a letter in which he said Miss Keeler told him Ivanov had asked her to find out from Profumo the dates of delivery of nuclear warheads to West Germany.

proaching talks with the Red Chinese over the split in the Sino-Soviet bloc; rather than by Khrushchev's desire to create a favorable atmosphere for the test ban talks.

Soviet and Chinese representatives are scheduled to meet in Moscow on July 5. One of Khrushchev's purposes at the moment could be to try to get across to the Red Chinese and to people in Russia that his policy of "peaceful coexistence" with the West is paying off in improved relations with the United States.

The theme of Moscow's comment on Kennedy's speech has been that the American president was moving toward peaceful coexistence.

Behind the scenes, however, all well-informed officials here agree that there had been no hint of any kind of concessions by Russia toward the test ban. There is even a serious question in the minds of top policy makers whether the offer Khrushchev made last December of two or three on-site inspections a year in Russia still stands.

In discussions with some Western visitors in recent weeks Khrushchev has spoken of that of-

Duryea Loses Count of Death Scenes

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Dan Duryea, during 20 years of motion picture and television villainy, has lost count of the death scenes he has played.

Dan has met the heavy's inevitable fate by shooting, stabbing, poisoning, electrocution, tumbling, burning, falling, collision and suicide.

This specialty—the kind of role that started him on his long, proffer as a thing of the past. It was not been formally withdrawn, however.

The messages which Khrushchev sent Kennedy and Macmillan last week have not been made public. But it can be stated on excellent authority that while the tone was generally cordial Khrushchev devoted considerable space to arguing that international inspection is not necessary to police the test ban and that if the Western powers want to end tests all they have to do is accept the Soviet position.

itable career as a bad guy—has been the sniveling menace. But he also does very nicely as the weak smart aleck and the trigger-happy coward.

Duryea believes he reached some sort of peak during the past television season when he played a phony psychiatrist in an episode of "The 11th Hour," hypnotizing a woman patient so thoroughly that she killed him by eldohbering him with a bottle while sobbing. "I love you, I love you."

Duryea has profited by his special brand of sleek menace. Thus he never complains seriously about type-casting, though he occasionally yearns to do some light comedy.

On Sunday afternoon he will appear as an unsavory character in "Major Adams," on ABC, a rerun of a "Wagon Train" episode from the days when the late Ward Bond was playing the trail master.

The big buzz in television circles concerns negotiations in progress for a picture adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's "Major Adams," a man packaging firm and Arthur Godfrey about hiring the veteran performer as host on a new game show, "Missing Links," to premier on the network's morning lineup come September.

Warns Rights Laws Must Be Passed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Negro congressman told the House Judiciary Committee today that the present racial crisis will become worse if Congress fails to pass strong civil rights legislation this session.

Rep. Charles C. Diggs Jr., D-Mich., made the statement after Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the committee, pleaded with Diggs and other Negro leaders to halt planned demonstrations in Washington.

Celler said he had heard reports that Negro freedom marchers intended to come to Washington and stage sit-ins in the offices of congressmen who oppose civil rights legislation.

"I assure you there will be a tremendously deep reaction to such moves," Celler said. "It can only hurt your cause."

"If rational counsel is to prevail among the mass of Negroes," replied Diggs, "then Congress will have to give the moderates, such as myself, the necessary weapons—and that means the whole civil rights package."

"If the Negroes don't get their

Board to Talk Over Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Little Rock School Board will meet June 20 to consider requests of four Negro students for assignment to desegregated schools. Deputy Superintendent Paul Fair said only one of the requests is new. The other three are appeals from students among the 66 denied reassignment last year. A request of a Negro student for transfer from a desegregated school to a Negro school will also be considered, Fair said.

demands they will turn to other leadership that will produce an even greater crisis than this one."

Diggs was accompanied to the hearing by Aaron Henry, Mississippi president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, whose home in Clarksdale, Miss., was bombed last April while Diggs was visiting him.

Henry recited the perils and difficulties of Negro leadership in Mississippi, leading off with a reference to Medgar W. Evers, NAACP leader in Jackson, Miss., who was killed early Wednesday by a shot from ambush.

Lifeguards Selected
Douglas Dennis and James Johnson were selected lifeguards for the City Park Thursday by David Watkins and Harold Douglas, water safety instructors, stated C. B. Smith, City Park commission chairman.

Nine boys took part in the test. The instructors made their selection after they had given a series of demonstrations and the boys had made several trial runs. The results were as follows: Douglas Dennis first place; James Johnson, second; and Freddie Huntley, third. The instructors stated that the life saving ability of both Dennis and Johnson were nearly the same.

"Yes, sir. It was on the medical record, that the patient showed the usual evidences of a persecution complex," said Smokey.

"Who made that record, doctor? Did you have anything personally to do with it?"

Smokey took a deep breath and shook his head. "I did not. The record was made, as well as the examination, and the diagnosis, by three psychiatrists appointed by the State of California."

Then there was a sharper stir to the right of me. I opened my eyes, and looked that way. The woman—Mrs. Weber, in her black dress, and swinging purse, and tottery heels—was going rapidly down the far aisle toward the door. The Judge pointed his gavel at her, and the bailiff went quickly across the floor toward her, calling to her to sit down.

She said something to him when he got to her. He turned around and looked at the clock.

The Judge said they would proceed—if matters delayed too long he would call for an adjournment; she was to wait.

Dick Hinton was writing something on his pad.

The prosecutor returned to his record, a frown black on his already swarthy face. "On Sept. 10, 1947," he repeated, "your wife told her sister that she feared she was going to be killed. On Sept. 16, she telephoned to a friend—the name is here, but we'll skip nonessentials—that she had a dental appointment for two that afternoon, and meant to keep it."

"Mrs. Eve Howdershell never arrived at the dentist's. His deposition is also here. She had the appointment. And—her friends never saw Mrs. S. M. K. Howdershell again. She disappeared completely."

It was as if a huge vacuum cleaner had sucked the air out of

Twin Win 20 in the Last 26 Games

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Minnesota's Bernie Allen crashed two home runs and a single and helped the fourth-place Twins to a 6-3 victory over the Kansas City A's Thursday night.

It was the Twins' 20th triumph in their last 26 games and lifted them to within two games of first place Chicago. When their surge started, the Twins were last, 8½ games off the pace.

The White Sox, idle Thursday, took over the top spot when Baltimore came from behind in New York, beat the Yankees 5-4 and broke a five-game losing string. Boston trimmed Washington 7-5 and Cleveland beat Detroit 5-3 in the only other games scheduled.

In the National League, the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers shut out Houston 3-0. St. Louis beat Philadelphia 7-3 in a game shortened to 5½ innings by rain. San Francisco edged Chicago 2-1 on Willie Mays' 10th inning homer and Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh 4-2. The New York Mets at Milwaukee game was rained out.

In addition to Allen, who hit .269 with 12 homers last season, Vic Power and Bob Allison were the big guns in Minnesota's 13-hit attack. Power had three singles and a double and Allison drove in two runs with a double.

Jim Perry, now 5-4, got the victory with relief help from Jim Kaat.

Brooks Robinson's two-run single in the seventh brought the Orioles from behind against the Yankees. The blow pinned the loss on reliever Bill Kunkel. Robinson made it stand up in the eighth when he threw out Joe Pepitone at the plate after making a fine play on a slow roller, Steve Barber, 10-5, won it, but needed help from Dick Hall.

Willie Kirkland's two-run homer was the difference for the streaking Indians, who won their seventh straight even though out-hit by Detroit 10-3. The Tigers Al Kaline had three hits, including his 15th homer, and took over the American League batting lead at .352.

Frank Malzone's three-run homer was the big hit in Boston's victory over Washington. Dick Stuart hit his 13th homer with the bases empty in the second.

Travs Finally End 10 Game Losing Streak

TORONTO (AP) — A pair of home runs by Richie Allen and four-hit pitching by Gary Kroll brought the Arkansas Travelers out of a 10-game losing streak Thursday night.

The Travelers downed Toronto 5-2 after dropping the opening game of a doubleheader 1-0.

In other games Buffalo downed Richmond 3-3, Indianapolis shut out Columbus 4-0, Rochester nipped Atlanta 5-2 and Syracuse beat Jacksonville 4-2.

The Maple Leafs took the first game from Arkansas on Seth Morehead's victory in a pitching duel with Bill Smith and relief hurler Dwight Siebler. Morehead didn't allow a runner past first base in his three-hitter.

Kroll, with four errors behind him, gave up two unearned runs in the nightcap, but was in command most of the way.

The Leafs threatened in the sixth inning, loading the bases, but could manage only one run.

Red Sox, Braves Post Victories

Last night at K Park the Red Sox beat the Yankees 18-11 and the Braves smacked the Giants 12 to 1. The Red Sox won with the help of Tim Lincecum's homer and the Braves won with Danny Putman tossing a one-hitter. Danny leads the league in strike outs with 31. The only hit was by Lee Ponder.

Next week the Giants take on the Yankees in the first game while the Red Sox play the Braves.

Palmer Has It Going for Him Again

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Arnold Palmer has it going again, and that is unsettling news for the men who scramble for purses on professional golf's golden highway.

"It wasn't work like it has been recently — it was fun again for a change," the perfectly relaxed three-time Masters champion beamed after posting a 3-under-par 67 Thursday for a share of the first round lead in the $100,000 Thunderbird Classic.

Tied with Palmer going into today's second round was an awed, 24-year-old rookie pro from Waterloo, Iowa, Jack Rule. Arnold had a two-stroke cushion over his principal rivals, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

Nicklaus, his putting touch cold, and Player, favored by a lucky ruling, were bunched with a dozen at 69. Ben Hogan, making a tournament comeback at the age of 50, was close with 71.

But the question they were asking around the 6,550-yard, par 70 Westchester Country Club course was:

"Who's going to cellar the

Hope Boy Will Leave For Two Month Visit And Tour Of Europe

William Edward Bazelle, of Hope, Ark., has been accepted by The Experiment in International Living Organization, as an experimenter, to visit and tour some European countries.

William, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bazelle, attended the Oak Grove High School of Roston, Arkansas and graduated as valedictorian of his class. He is now a senior at Texas Southern University, Houston. There he is an active member of the student council, a member of the American Chemical Society, the Arkansas Psi fraternity. He is majoring in chemistry and minoring in mathematics. During his Junior year he worked as a student laboratory assistant for the analytical chemist Dr. R. F. Wilson, who is doing research under the sponsorship of the Robert A. Welch foundation.

William will leave around June 24th and go to New York where he will join the group of Switzerland and experimenters for a week of training. He will leave New York July 1st for Switzerland as an ambassador from Texas Southern University. He will live in the home of a Swiss family, as a member of the family for a period of four weeks.

The purpose of this phase is the student to learn the culture of this specific country. This international organization attempts to find an answer to the most pressing question of our time. "Can people of different Nations understand one another well enough to see to it that their governments live peacefully together?"

After the four weeks of home-stay, William will join the group for a series of tours for about three weeks. Touring the seven schools of higher learning of Switzerland, industrial centers and historic castles. He will take several informal trips by hikes on bus and train to the larger cities.

He will also visit several other European countries, Italy, Germany and France. William will return to the United States around the 1st of September.

Recruiters Pay Tribute to Local Residents

Certificates of special recognition for their support and cooperation with recruiting personnel were given this week to two local residents.

In the top picture Major Lynn C. Shelton from the main recruiting station at Shreveport is shown presenting Paula Dupree with a certificate for her help in announcing various notices over Radio Station KXAR. At right is Sgt. Kenneth R. Palmer of the Texarkana recruiting center who comes to Hope each Wednesday.

The bottom picture shows Major Shelton presenting a similar certificate to Leland W. Markham, Hope Post Office employee, who has helped Recruiter Palmer in many ways. Anyone interested in joining the service can contact Mr. Palmer at the Post Office any Wednesday.

Vander Meer Still Tells of No-Hitters

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

In the 25 years since June 15, 1938, Johnny Vander Meer has told the story of his two no-hitters so often that he can start at midnight and name batter, count and umpire. The memories still are green although the Dutchman is 46 with a few extra pounds around the middle and a little gray seeding on the top.

Spencer Tracy was playing "Boys Town" Lawlin has just won the Derby and Doug Corrigan was preparing to fly to Dublin—the wrong way — when Vander Meer came to Broadway from Cincinnati with one no-hitter at ready in his pocket. John had blanked the Boston Braves, then managed by Casey Stengel, 3-0 on Saturday afternoon, June 11 in Cincinnati.

Now it was Wednesday night the 15th and Larry MacPhail was introducing night baseball at Ebbets Field, little knowing that Vander Meer would put the icing on the cake with his second no-hitter.

Located by telephone the other midnight at a Key West, Fla., motel, he willingly recalled his night of fame.

"I was quick that night," the heavy voice said over some 1,600 miles of cables. "Tom (catcher Ernie Lombardi) called only four or five curve balls the first seven innings. Then we switched to the curve."

"The ninth? I'll never forget it. I got the first man out (Buddy Hassett). Then I walked the bases full. The next man hit to Lew Higgs at third base and he went to the plate. Lam held the ball for the force out.

"Then Durocher was up. I got

Suit Filed to Mix Schools

MEMPHIS (AP)—A suit to desegregate Shelby County schools was filed Wednesday in federal court by attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

No time limit was given but the court was asked to have the school board draw up a plan for reorganization of the entire school system as soon as possible.

Board President W. Percy McDonald said the board "would definitely be able to work it out before the start of school this fall."

Two strikes and a ball. I had him struck out on the next pitch but Bill Stewart called it a ball. The next pitch he popped up to short center and Harry Craft caught it.

"The first guy out to the mound was Stewart. If you didn't get that, I blew it for you," he told me. I didn't even know it was a record for organized ball."

Did Vander Meer have any special plans for celebrating his 25th anniversary?

"Twenty five years ago when the game was over in Brooklyn I went fishing over in Jersey, my old home state," said Johnny.

"This Saturday morning at 4 o'clock I have an appointment to go bass fishing."

Koufax Keeps Dodgers Ahead With Shutout

By M. K. RATHET

Sandy Koufax seemed headed for his first 20-victory season today after blanking Houston 3-0 on three hits Thursday night — his fifth shutout — to keep the Los Angeles Dodgers out front in the National League pennant scramble.

Koufax struck out 10 Colts—the 45th time in his career he has fanned 10 or more batters in a game—and brought his record to 9-3.

The 27-year-old left-hander, reducing his earned run average to a glittering 1.77, has recorded four of his shutouts and compiled a 5-0 record at home. And he has allowed only two runs at Dodger Stadium in 54 2-3 innings.

Koufax' latest shutout left the Dodgers .002 points ahead of runners-up San Francisco and St. Louis at the top of the standings. The Giants edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1 on Willie Mays' 10th inning homer while the Cardinals thumped Philadelphia 7-3 in a game held to 5½ innings by rain.

Fourth-place Cincinnati used homers by Leo Cardenas and Gordy Coleman to whip Pittsburgh 4-2 behind the five-hit pitching of John Tislouris. The New York Mets-Milwaukee game was rained out.

Idle Chicago regained the top spot in the American League when Baltimore dropped the New York Yankees to second, 5-4. Minnesota belted Kansas City 6-3, Boston defeated Washington 7-5 and Cleveland downed Detroit 5-3.

Mays' 12th homer and Felipe Alou's 13th, in the seventh inning, got the job done for the Giants and Billy O'Dell, who brought his record to 9-2 by retiring the last 13 Cubs in order. O'Dell was touched for six hits—one a single by loser Dick Ellsworth that drove in the Chicago run. Ellsworth, 8-5, allowed only four hits.

The Cardinals scored four times in the first inning against the Phillies. An error by Roy Sievers let in one run and the others came across on hits by Charley James, George Altman and Julian Javier.

Gene Oliver later knocked in two St. Louis runs with an inside-the-park homer. Ernie Broglio, tagged for homers by Sievers and Earl Averill, was the winner for a 7-2 record. Chris Short, 1-7, was the loser.

Cardenas' homer got the Reds in the scoring column before Coleman's two-run homer in the fourth inning put it out of the Pirates reach. Tislouris, who gave up two runs in the first inning drove in the final run with a single and settled down to pitch no-hit ball over the final four innings. He is now 2-1. Don Cardwell, 2-8, took the loss.
